DETAILED ACTION

This Office Action is in response to Applicant's Amendment filed on 14 November 2006.

Drawings

The drawings were received on 14 November 2006. These drawings are accepted.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.
3. Claim 1 recites the limitation "the glue" in line 1. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

Art Unit: 3734

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

4. Claims 1 and 4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Morgan (US Patent 2,303,131).

5. Claim 1: Morgan'131 discloses a wound closure device containing two opposing rotating wheels (9 and 9) that is capable of being pulled along a wound to progressively bring the skin edges together. The device also contains a device (10) to supply glue (11) to the skin edges being brought together

Claim 4: The face of wheels (9) can serve as manually operated buttons.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148 USPQ 459 (1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.
2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.
3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.
4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or nonobviousness.

Art Unit: 3734

6. Claim 3 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Morgan'131, as applied to Claim 1, in further view of Brotz (US Patent 5,584,859).

Morgan'131 teaches the limitations of Claim 3, except for the use of barbs to engage the skin. Brotz'859 teaches that it is well known to use barbs to engage the skin when closing a wound because this prevents outward movement of the skin (column 2, lines 1-47). It would have been obvious to one skilled in the art at the time the invention was made to modify the device taught by Morgan'131 with barbs because barbs on a wound closure device prevent the skin from moving outward away from the wound.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed 14 November 2006 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

Applicant argues that the wheels (9) taught by Morgan'131 are not capable of bringing opposing edges of a wound together because they are at a fixed distance. The wheels (9) are capable of bringing the edges of a wound together, especially if the wound is located in a concave location in the body (a cupped palm of a hand, for example) because moving the wheels over a wound located in a concave location on the body would bring the opposing edges of the wound together.

Applicant also argues that there is no teaching or suggestion in Morgan'131 that would motivate someone to move the device along a wound.

Art Unit: 3734

However, a rejection made under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) does not need to provide a teaching or motivation – the prior art must only disclose all the limitations of the claim.

Further, Applicant argues that the buttons (face of wheels 9) is unjustified. Since the rejection is made under 35 U.S.C. 102(b), and Applicant claims no structure or function of the buttons, the face of element (9) meets the claim's limitations.

Further, Applicant states that the limitations of Claims 2 and 5 were incorporated into Claim 1. However, the Amendment to the Claims do not reflect an incorporating the limitations of Claim 5 into Claim 1.

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
